RESPONSE TO PSC’S MOTION TO ENTER CASE MANAGEMENT ORDER

Anonymous Pain Clinic, Anonymous M.D. 1 and Anonymous M.D. 2 (“Anonymous Defendants”) oppose the PSC’s proposed Case Management Order. After conferring with the PSC and other Defendants in this matter, Anonymous Defendants are concerned that PSC’s proposed CMO unnecessarily complicates the issues which the Court requested the parties work together to streamline. After the PSC filed its proposed CMO on February 25, 2015, the St. Thomas Entities, the Tennessee Clinic Defendants, and the Box Hill Defendants all filed responses in opposition.

Rather than reassert the arguments that have already been fully briefed and well stated by those parties, Anonymous Defendants hereby join their opposition responses and incorporate the arguments set forth by the St. Thomas Entities (Dkt. 1721), the Tennessee Clinic Defendants (Dkt. 1722), and the Box Hill Defendants (Dkt. 1727).

Further, the Anonymous Defendants respectfully request that this Court reject PSC's Motion to Enter Case Management Order (Dkt. 1711) and instead enter either the proposed CMO proffered by the St. Thomas Entities (Dkt. 1721) or in the alternative the proposed CMO proffered by the Tennessee Clinic Defendants.

Respectfully submitted,

HALL RENDER KILLIAN HEATH & LYMAN
